Fragment of Utopia. by Hanzil. Book Cover & Preview Text x Even if words could fall on him like a waterfall, Leo would still be unable to find the one word that might clarify his life. This felt strange. He was at a loss for what could explain his life, yet for now, one word seemed to sum up his current situation: emptiness. He hadn't chosen it for himself, though. Leo as a whole was as ...

Explaining how Seidler drew his inspiration from a variety of sources, Belogolovsky emphasizes that Seidler was "always rational, but sometimes the building work took the form influenced by a fragment in a painting or a sculpture." The work of artists with whom he collaborated are well-represented in the exhibition, including Josef Albers, Alexander Calder, Frank Stella, Sol LeWitt, Norman ...

Fragments of utopia has been printed in the Netherlands by one of the best colour printers (Drukkerij Rosbeek). The book's design and manufacture seek to match the ideals of its topic: an artefact with distinct material qualities, and fully serviceable. Reviews. While David Wild has made his mark as an architect and builder, teacher and writer, we have had to wait a long time for this, his ...
